Course Description

Singapore's rapid growth and transformation has led it to become one of the world's greatest economic success stories. Widely acclaimed as an economic miracle, Singapore's success can be attributed to a series of deliberate and responsive economic and tax policies which have ensured its sustained macroeconomic stability and attractiveness to foreign investment.

Mode of Learning and Learning Outcome

Students will be introduced to the history of Singapore's experience as an open economy seen through the lens of tax policy. The module will enable students to trace the development of Singapore's economic progress as they are given a chronological walk-through of the development of Singapore's tax system. Students will have opportunity to explore the unique and key features of various tax policies (e.g., tax incentives and tax measures) which were integral in promoting the rapid industrialization and growth of specific sectors in the Singapore economy which are still relevant today. The module aims to provide students with insights into the rationale behind these policies and their implementation. This module intends to stimulate critical thinking and engage students in intellectual discourse on the impact and effectiveness of various tax policies and relevance of these policies which continue to contribute to Singapore's sustained prosperity and success in the Asean community and on the global stage.

Learning Outcomes

- A good insight and articulation of the role of taxation in the economic development and success of Singapore as a city state;
- An understanding of the rationale and philosophy behind Singapore's tax policies/incentives which have been integral to Singapore's unique positioning and competitiveness;

Mode of Teaching

Students are expected to come to class well prepared and be ready to respond to questions as required. This means doing the required readings or problem assignments before each session.

All lecture notes, tutorial questions, reading materials and assignments are downloadable from the course website. Lectures may not necessarily relate directly to your readings and assignments.

Classes commence from Week 1 (week beginning 15 January 2018, i.e., 1st lesson on Thursday 18 January 2018).
