LEARNING METHODS

You will learn by reading, listening, watching, thinking, applying, talking, writing and having some fun along the way. You will be exposed to a combination of lectures, videos, hands-on exercises, and case discussions.

You are required to:

- Attend two-hour online lecture every week (Monday 10am – 12nn)
- Attend two-hour online tutorial every fortnight, which follows an odd/even week schedule.
- Serve as subject pool participants in marketing research projects. Your participation in these projects will expose you to current research interests in the field of marketing.

CLARIFICATIONS AND QUERIES

Please email your tutors if you have questions regarding the content in the textbook, lecture materials, or tutorial cases/assignments.

ACADEMIC HONESTY & PLAGIARISM

Academic integrity and honesty is essential for the pursuit and acquisition of knowledge. The University and School expect every student to uphold academic integrity & honesty at all times. Academic dishonesty is any misrepresentation with the intent to deceive, or failure to acknowledge the source, or falsification of information, or inaccuracy of statements, or cheating at examinations/tests, or inappropriate use of resources.

Plagiarism is 'the practice of taking someone else's work or ideas and passing them off as one's own' (The New Oxford Dictionary of English). The University and School will not condone plagiarism. Students should adopt this rule - You have the obligation to make clear to the assessor which is your own work, and which is the work of others. Otherwise, your assessor is entitled to assume that everything being presented for assessment is being presented as entirely your own work. This is a minimum standard. In case of any doubts, you should consult your instructor.
