

MNO4861C Corporate Entrepreneurship

Semester 1, AY2023/2024

Course Instructor & Coordinator*: Dr Sarah Cheah*

Course Description:

This Course focuses on corporate entrepreneurship. Corporate entrepreneurship refers to the process of organizational renewal and relates to two distinct but related domains: innovation and new venturing. It has two primary objectives. The first objective is to enable the students to apply entrepreneurship-related concepts in practice. The second objective is to broaden the students' education by enabling them to appreciate the application of entrepreneurship knowledge to companies. To achieve these objectives, the Course provides an overview of the major elements of entrepreneurship and innovation, with special focus on corporate entrepreneurship. The students will also have the opportunity to meet corporate entrepreneurs to understand their challenges and strategic approaches in creating value for their organizations.

Learning Outcomes:

After the course, the students will be able to

ACADEMIC HONESTY & PLAGIARISM

Academic integrity and honesty is essential for the pursuit and acquisition of knowledge. The University and School expect every student to uphold academic integrity & honesty at all times. Academic dishonesty is any misrepresentation with the intent to deceive, or failure to acknowledge the source, or falsification of information, or inaccuracy of statements, or cheating at examinations/tests, or inappropriate use of resources.

Plagiarism is 'the practice of taking someone else's work or ideas and passing them off as one's own' (The New Oxford Dictionary of English). The University and School will not condone plagiarism. Students should adopt this rule - You have the obligation to make clear to the assessor which is your own work, and which is the work of others. Otherwise, your assessor is entitled to assume that everything being presented for assessment is being presented as entirely your own work. This is a minimum standard. In case of any doubts, you should consult your instructor.
