Academic Honesty & Plagiarism

Academic integrity and honesty is essential for the pursuit and acquisition of knowledge. The University and School expect every student to uphold academic integrity & honesty at all times. Academic dishonesty is any misrepresentation with the intent to deceive, or failure to acknowledge the source, or falsification of information, or inaccuracy of statements, or cheating at examinations/tests, or inappropriate use of resources.

Plagiarism is “the practice of taking someone else’s work or ideas and passing them off as one’s own” (The New Oxford Dictionary of English). The University and School will not condone plagiarism. Students should adopt this rule - You have the obligation to make clear to the assessor which is your own work, and which is the work of others. Otherwise, your assessor is entitled to assume that everything being presented for assessment is being presented as entirely your own work. This is a minimum standard. In case of any doubt, you should consult your instructor.

About me

I am Associate Professor (Dr) Alice CHRISTUDASON. I teach most of the Law Modules at the Department of Real Estate at the School of Business, National University of Singapore.

On a Commonwealth Universities Scholarship, I obtained my PhD in Law from King’s College London, from where I also obtained my LLM (Master of Laws). I obtained my LLB (Hons.) from the University of Singapore. I am also an Advocate and Solicitor of the Supreme Court of Singapore. After several years in practice doing both corporate and litigation work, I joined NUS to pursue a teaching career.

I have acquired several decades of teaching experience over a wide range of Core and Elective Law Modules at both undergraduate and postgraduate levels. I am a highly sought-after trainer for Real Estate Law on Executive programs for private organisations as well as Statutory Boards. I have taught law-related modules to various entities including the Singapore Land Authority, Jurong Town Corporation and the Singapore Tourism Board.

I was formerly the Vice-Chair of the NUS Teaching Academy Executive Council, Fellow of the NUS Teaching Academy, Associate Director of the NUS Centre for Development of Teaching and Learning (CDTL) and member of the Valuation Review Board. Presently I am a Member of the School of Business Teaching Excellence Council.

My research areas/interests include land law, strata law, landlord and tenant law, land acquisition and planning law. I have authored and co-authored texts on real estate law, and published in international journals and presented at international conferences on real estate related, and educational pedagogical issues.

Teaching is my passion and I have won numerous teaching awards including the NUS Annual Teaching Excellence Awards, School of Design & Environment Teaching Excellence Awards as well as GEM (General Education Module) and SS (Singapore Studies) Incentive Scheme Awards.

I maintain the rigour of my Modules by engaging my students through the use of a combination of Case-studies, inquiry-based learning, the Socratic method, and a measured dose of humour.

Attend my lessons, and I assure you that there will never be a dull moment. You will remember my lessons long after they are over as I will ignite in you a deep and lasting interest in the Law and law-related issues.
